His Winnings on Nealon, the Suburban Vic tor. New Said to He $100,000-His Operations on Seven Races Yesterday Net Him a Profit-Ring Cleans Up.

The aftermath of the Suburban Handicap developed the fact yesterday that John W. Gates actually won close to $190,000 in wagers on the victory of Nealon. He cleaned up ioners placed enough in the ring to win similar amount. That Mr. Gates has decided to make an unprecedented attempt to beat the races this year is now an accepted fact. With Boots Durnell as his adviser, the millionaire turiman is betting thousands on every race.
There is no limit to his wagers when he thinks a horse has a cinch, so that it is merely a ques-tion at times of how much money the bookmakers will accept from him. Mr. Gates bet on all seven races yesterday and experienced a rather strenuous afternoon. Dur-nell's lightweight jockey, Eddie Dugan, had the mount on S. C. Hildreth's Hiacko, a Fresno olt, in the first race, and Mr. Gates was informed that Hiacko was a copper lined cinch. Accordingly Mr. Gates unloaded a $10,000 ommission on the colt, who finished a head out of the money, the books winning a large smount on his defeat, as other plungers and public in general backed him from 2 to 1

In the second race there was a cog in the machinery of the combination, for little Dugan won with Barbary Belle, a 5 to 1 shot, while the Gates wager of $10,000 went astray on P. T. Chinn's Pretension, 11 to 5 favorite. Nothing daunted, however, the millionaire plunger selected Notasulga for the Daisy plunger selected Notasulga for the Dalsy Stakes in spite of the fact that Cohort looked to be a sure winner. While Cohort was heavily backed at 6 to 5, Mr. Gates had several agents in the ring taking all the 2 to 1 on Notasulga that was on tap. Notasulga won and Mr. tates won back the $20,000 he dropped on the first two races. It looked like Halifax in the Coney Island Handicap and Mr. Gates backed him at the opening of the speculation, but later he got a red hot tip on King's Daughter and stood to win a bundle. But Tony Faust spoiled it all by getting up in the last

Durnell had Joe Nealon in the fifth race, and as the colt had been tremendously backed n his previous race only to be defeated because of a poor start, Mr. Gates decided to go back to him again. There was 2 to 1 at the opening and the Gates commission quickly made its appearance. Every book of any importance was besieged with offers from the Gates commissioners, who got about $10,000 on, while practically the same mount was placed in the clubhouse. This Joe Nealon made good and Mr. Gates was $35,000 winner on the result. The next good thing was W. B. Jennings's Ruby, in the sixth race. E. Dugan had the leg up and the Gates wagers forced the price from 10 down to 4. But Ruby could not get up a respectable gallop. The last race was something of a puzzle, for Mr. Gates bet on Haensel first, then on H. P. Whitney's Per-severance and finally on Dick Finnell, all of whom were beaten. At that Mr. Gates was a good winner on the day and so far s said to be well shead of the game. The bookmakers won all kinds of money

n the general result of the day's proceedings. In addition to the cleanup with Hiacko in the first race, they kept a lot of money wagered on Masson, backed from 10 to 8, also on L. A. Cella's Rustle, well played at 5. Alauda, the winner, who went up to 10 to 1, was a paddock tip that was fairly well taken at the last moment. Thousands dollars were burned up by Pretension in the second race, but the books paid out liberally on Barbary Belle three ways. Orbicular was also taken across the boards and so was

Nearly all of the smart operators and the public bet on Cohort in the Daisy Stakes, the colt ruling a steady favorite at 6 to 5.

Notasulga meanwhile went up from 8 to 5 to 2 to 1. There was a strong play on James B. Brady and Scallop to show, with the others passed up. Previous winners of the Daisy were Eclipse, Charade, Lovelace, Cataract, Harry Reed, Floretta IV., George Ressler, Mehallah, Kingdon, Neda, Lady of the Valley, Leonora Loring, Roxboro, Na-mecki, St. Bellane, Voorhees and Red River. There were four added starters, Sir Lynne-mood, Comedienne, They're Off and Firs Premium, in the Coney Island Handicap but this did not annoy the betting public in the least. The speculation on Halifax had a queer look. The books all took a fall ou of him in spite of the fact that he won hi last race in great style and looked the best 10 13 to 5, with 7 to 5 place and 7 to 10 third gainst him at the close, the layers grabbing If the money they could get their hands on here was a strong play across the board n King's Daughter and De Mund, while reamer was heavily backed place and show C. Core was taken three ways, but no ugh to keep his price from going up. At he last minute a few of the Western wise men hurried about the ring and skimmed the top price against Tony Faust, 30 to 1. This colt, another product of Barney Schreiber's purchased last winter by Sam Hildreth, who osi a rare chance to make a sensational illing yesterday. The Coney Island Handiwas run for the first time in 1894 with thèse winners: Armitage. Domino, Hanwell, Voter (twice), Hatasoo, Lady Uncas (twice), Hamburg Belle and King's Daughter.

In spite of the plunge on Joe Nealon in the Ifth race Jack Bennet felt sure that his colt Orcagna, by Ornament-Lucasta, would win He put Miller up and the colt was backed from 10 down to 6, but there was nothing but gloom for his backers when the numbers went up. P. J. Dwyer's Ansonia, who ran second unbacked at 100 to 1 in some of the books, is a filly by Handspring—Jemima. Fresh was well played to show, also Beardall, Biskra and Gay Gryselle. Citizen, a Keene castoff, was also backed from 30 down to 15.

C. Miller, an adopted son of J. Miller, a well known trainer, had the mount on M. L. Schwartz's Punch in this race. Soon after the start Punch was thrown into the fence and the little jockey had his right leg broken. He did not fall from the saddle, but ung on for dear life. The colt not only finished out ran away for nearly a mile before he was caught, when the boy was taken to the track hospital in great pain.

Although Yankee Girl was easily the class of the race, there was a tendency on the part of the smart bettors to play all around her because of the belief that she did not fancy the turf ourse. As a result she went back in the price from 8 to 5 to 2 to 1, when Plunger Ellison, her wner, got aboard with a vengeance and backed her down to 9 to 5. Don Enrique also receded from 3 to 9 to 2. Ostrich, who looked as if he was primed to go after the coin, was reuced from 12 to 10; Ruby was backed from 10 to 4, while Bartender was solidly played cross the board. Yankee Girl, who wo the bit, gave thirty-four pounds to Bartender and thirty to Ostrich E. R. Bradley got his bundle with Troublemaker, in the last race. Dick Finnell, a full brother to Ort Wells, who ran second, was backed from 12 to 8. H. B. Duryea's Ramrod, by Sandringham—Benita Brush, was played down a point to 6. H. P. Whitney's Perse-verance, a son of Meddler—Castalia, was backed from 5 to 4. The Millerites took froming at 6 and were sorry. R. L. Thomas's sensel, a colt by Resolute II. - The Crawfish, who had worked a mile for this race in 1:40, opened a hot favorite at 2 to 1. He was anickly backed down to even money, but after that he began to go up until it was Dossible to secure 4 to 1 at the last moment. He had a lot of early speed but was evidently short of work. Paul J. Rainey's cryane, a veritable snare, was again played up the usual result. Dugan rode two winners, while Radtke, ling. Mountain and Miller cut a figure in getting horses into the money. the sale of Haggin yearlings before the Star Ruby-Graciosity, a half brother o De Mund. A. J. Joyner got a colt by Gold-fuch-Duchese of Towers for $4,800.

HARVARD CREW IN SHAPE. Farley Shows Improvement and Wray Appears Satisfied.

116 Alila... 116 Littleton Maid

NEW LONDON, June 21 .- "The Harvard rew is slowly rounding into shape," said Coach Jim Wray this evening. "It is doubtful if any more time rows will be taken." Farley has improved wonderfully in the last week in stroking the eight and the rhythm which Wray has been looking for is gradually but surely being interpreted by the oarsmen. Harvard's eight was sent over the course for one mile at 6:45 o'clock over the course for one mile at 6:45 o'clock this evening against tide, and with tide in 5 minutes 28 seconds. Lunt has replaced 8wain at No. 2 in the varsity four oar.

Coach John Kennedy took advantage of the excellent conditions and tried out his varsity eight and four oar for one and two miles respectively. The eight rowed from the first mile flag to the navy yard and travelled that section of the course in 4 minutes and 47 seconds, the fastest mile yet reeled off on the Thames River this year. The four rowed two miles downstream in 11 minutes 26 seconds. This evening at 6:30 o'clock Yale's freshmen eight rowed over the upper half of the course in 11 minutes 22 seconds, against wind but with favorable tide.

SONDER CLASS SELECTIONS. Marblehead, Chewink VIII. and Spokane I.

to Go Abroad. MARBLEHEAD, Mass., June 21.-The German-American race committee of the Eastern Yacht Club this afternoon decided upon the Marblehead and the Chewink VIII. to make up the trio of Sonder class boats to represent America in the coming races at Kiel for the America in the coming races at Kiel for the German Emperor's cup and at San Sebastian for the King of Spain's cup. The Spokane I. was selected last night.

One race was started to-day between the Chewink VIII., Marblehead and Silly VIII. The Corinthian, Marla and Spokane II. had been previously eliminated because of their poor showing. The first race was called off because of light air, but the Chewink demonstrated that she was the best drifter of the three, so the committee ploked her as the second of the challengers. Then another race was sailed by the Marblehead and Silly VIII. the former winning by nearly two minutes, so she was chosen as the third boat to go abroad.

SAIN COLT TAKES CONEY ISLAND HANDICAP BY A HEAD.

Notasulga Beats Cohort in Daisy Stakes -Alauda, Barbary Belle, Joe Nealon, Yankee Girl and Troublemaker the Other Winners at Sheepshead Bay Track.

Seven races were run at Sheepshead Bay yesterday and in five of them the public choices met defeat. Fully 15,000 persons were in attendance and a majority of them went home behind the game financially. The biggest surprise of the afternoon oc-curred in the running of the Coney Island Handicap, at six furlongs, main course. On form Halifax looked best, but he went up in the betting to 13 to 5, with 7 to 5 for the place, and got no part of the purse. S. C. Hildreth's Tony Faust, a three-year-old Sain colt, quoted at 30 to 1, came with a dazzling rush at the end and won by a head from T. C. McDowell's King's Daughter. 8 to 1, with H. B. Duryea's Dreamer, 6 to 1, a length and a half back, beating the New-castle Stable's J. C. Core, 7 to 1, a head. The time was 1:13 4-5.

A bad ride by Lowe resulted in the unexpected defeat of the Oneck Stable's Cohort. 6 to 5 favorite, in the Daisy Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furiongs, on the grass.

Cohort broke slowly, and when Lowe got him well into his stride he messed the colt about in the stretch like a green apprentice. Meanwhile Albert Hamel's good filly Notaulga, 2 to 1, who had run over the pacemaker, sulga, 2 to 1, who had run over the pacemaker. James B. Brady, at the head of the stretch, went on to the wire, where she defeated Cohort by half a length in 1:01. Cohort managed to beat Woodford Clay's Nimbus 30 to 1, a neck for the place.

Under a hard drive and on the extreme outside of the track C. E. Durnell's Joe Nealon, 5 to 1 favorite, got up in time to win the fifth race, for two-year-olds, five furiongs, by a head from P. J. Dwyer's Ansonia, 60 to 1, who in turn had the same advantage over the Oneck Stable's Fresh, 15 to 1. The time was 1:01 2-5.

who in turn had the same advantage over the Oneck Stable's Fresh, 15 to 1. The time was 1:01 2-5.

C. R. Ellison's Yankee Girl, with top weight and a receding favorite, ran off with the handicap, at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf. She went to the front at the three-quarter pole and breezed to the judges' four lengths in front of Bartender, 6 to 1. Ostrich, backed down to 10, was a poor third after following Campaigner's pace. Ruby, backed down to 4, was never a factor. The time was 1:49.

Three long shots cut up the purse in the first race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Alauda, 10 to 1, made all the pace and beat Sydney Paget's Risk, 40 to 1, by a couple of lengths. The latter was a head in front of the Newcastle Stable's Masson, 8 to 1, who, in turn, was a head before S. C. Hildreth's Hicko, a hot 6 to 5 favorite. The time was 1:012-5.

Moyea, 15 to 1, made the running in the second race, at six and a half furlongs, up to the last eighth pole, where he hung. Then Barbary Belle, 5 to 1, went to the front and beat the rapidly closing Orbicular, 6 to 1, by a length, with Moyea a head back. Pretension, 11 to 5 favorite, could not raise a gallop. The time was 1:20.

E. R. Bradley's Troublemaker, a 15 to 1 shot, took the last race, for maidens, at a mile galloping home three lengths in front of Dick Finnell, 8 to 1, with Haensel, 3 to 1 favorite, a poor third. The time was 1:41.

THE SUN, SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1907.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.-Aleck Ross of the Brae Burn Country Club, Boston, won the thirteenth annual open championship of the United States Golf Association today at the links of the Philadelphia Cricket Club. He led on Thursday with 150, one stroke better than Jack Hobens of Engle-wood and two strokes to the good on Ben Nicholis and Nipper Campbell. At the close of the third round this morning Hobens The West polished off the East yesterday in the American League in the last series of led with 224, thanks to a 73, while Ross, who did 76, was second at 226. The eclipse was games between them for a while. The New Yorks lost their third straight to the St. Louis transitory, for another 76 gave to Ross the winning card of 302. Gil Nicholls, who had team, and when St. Louis beats a team three straight the latter is playing pretty poorly.

In the entire home series against the West-erners the New Yorks won four games and Philadelphia, and the Clevelands forced a capitulation of the Washington fortress. The results: St. Louis, 7; New York, 3.

Chicage, 4; Boston, 4.

President Chauncey and the U. S. G. A. officials presented the prizes to the winners before an enthusiastic gallery. Ross received $300, a gold medal and the custody of the championship cup. Gil Nicholis won $150, Aleck Campbell, $100: John Hobens, $80, while George Low. Peter Robertson and Fred McLeod divided the fifth, sixth and seventh prizes, or $60 apiece. Dave Brown and Ben Nicholis divided the next two prizes, or $30 apiece, and Donald Ross won the tenth prize of $20.

Tom Macnamara led the homebreds at $15.
Jerome D. Travers and Dr. Simon Carr were the only amateurs to return full cards. The scores:

153 to start with, worked into second place

by two 79s, with 304, beating out the Nipper

by a stroke. This result sent first, second and third money to Boston.

Aleck Ross has for two years won the Massachusetts open championship, but it is his first victory in the national. He came to this first victory in the national. He came to this country as a youngster in 1901 to assist his brother, Donald, at the Oakley Country Club and Pinehurst. He has alternated since between the Southern course in the winter and a Boston one in the summer. Rose has played with prominence in the open championships since 1902, and at Onwentsia last year took the sixth prize. Rose's card, which shows wonderful steadiness, was:

Aleck Smith to-day made the third round in $4, an aggregate of 253 for the three rounds in the golf tournament here.
At the end of the third round J. H. Taylor was leading with 234, while Massey was second with 235.

PARIS, June 21.—Massey's final success in the international golf championship at Hoylake was confidently expected here. He is of the stuff that great golfers are gnade of, a thorough athlete and a superb Græco-Roman wrestler. He acquired the elements of the game at Biarritz as a caddie and he perfected his play in Scotland.

LIGHT BREEZE SPOILS RACE. Big Yachts Unable to Finish in Seawanhaka Corinthian Regatta.

Light breezes and calms spoiled what promised to be a splendid race for the boats of the Long Island Sound fleet yesterday afternoon in the first of the two day regatts at the Scawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club at Oyster Bay. Of the big boats Neols and Irolita appeared in the 68 foot class of sloops Irolita appeared in the 68 foot class of sloops and the new 57 foot one design boats, Aurora, Winsome and Istalena met. They were to sail a fifteen and a quarter mile course, but after delaying two hours for the start and waiting for the light airs to freeshen they were able to cover only eleven miles by a half hour after sunset, when the time limit expired, and for the two classes it was declared no race. The New York 30 footers and the 27 and 22 footers, sailing a nine and a half mile course, were able to squeeze in in time, though only five of these officially crossed the line. Howard Willets's Minx and E. F. Luckenbach's Sue were the winners in the two classes.

howard whites with and E. r. Luckenbach's Sue were the winners in the two classes.

The race was started at nearly 3 o'clock in a light east southeast wind. Neola crossed the line about a length ahead of Irolita and to windward, but on the reach across to Woolsey's Keef, after a series of luffing matches, Irolita beat her to the mark, rounding at 4:32:28, while Neola turned at 4:36:08. Commodore Vanderbill's Aurora, handled by Charley Barr, got the start of the 57 footers, but engaged at once in a luffing match with Harry Lippitt's Winsome that ended with Barr setting a protest flag. Winsome turned the mark in the lead at 4:38:35, with Istalena second at 4:39:37, and Aurora last at 4:57:20. The boats then hung in doldrums the best part of the next two hours and were four miles from home when the sunset gun sounded. Minx of the thirties meantime drew away from the rest of the New York boats and crossed the finish line at 7:44:50. Commodore Alker's Alera was the second home, followed by E. F. Luckenbach's Sue leading the other class.

ST. LOUIS (A. L.), 7; NEW YORK (A. L.), 3.

Even Al Orth, the New York mainstay in the box, could not pitch his team to a victory yesterday, and the grilling the New Yorks have been subjected to pretty much all of the time since the series with the Western teams began on the hill lasted to the bitter end. The St. Louisians made enough hits off Orth to win with ease. At least a third of their safeties were lucky scratch hits; but whatever the nature of them there they were, and the runs sprouted forth from them freely.

hits off Orth to win with ease. At least a third of their safeties were lucky scratch hits; but whatever the nature of them there they were, and the runs sprouted forth from them freely.

The fielding of the New York's did not dazzle anybody, but they did not lose through any fielding misdemeanors. The other side made hits, while New York's batting was spectral, evanescent and debilitated. Harry Howell's wet wafts worsted the local batters, and only Elberfeld and Keeler did not grope in the dark when face to face with Harry's slippery pitching. The hustling of Elberfeld saved the New Yorks from a worse drubbing—that and a wild pitch. Jones had eighteen putouts at first base for St. Louis, showing that the New Yorks did most of their hitting to the infield. The visitors fielded well, especially Wallace, Jones and Stone. Kleinow did pretty throwing for the New Yorks.

The first inning was very pleasing. Keeler and Elberfeld spanked singles to left. Chase hit to Wallace, who overlooked a chance to throw to second and force Elberfeld. He threw Chase out at first, Elberfeld slipping to second on the play and Keeler to third. Both came in on a wild pitch that broke too soon, hit the ground and bounded over Buelow's head. Those two runs held the New Yorks until the sixth, when Elberfeld scored on a hit, a steal and Laporte's single.

Orth and Keeler hit safely in the eighth and with nobody out. They advanced on Elberfeld's out. That was all. Chase, whose batting is not in accord with the increase of salary he received, flied to Stone, the latter making a fine catch, and Laporte flied out. The retreat of the New Yorks began in the second inning. Orth passed Wallace, Hemphill forced Bonny Bob, Hartzell's hit took a mean bend to Elberfeld, Buelow was passed and Butler carromed a safety over second base. Two runs resulted, and another followed on a fumble by Elberfeld.

The visitors made five consecutive cracks in the third. Pickering scratched a songly single to short. Wallace scratched a dinky double to left. Hemphill m thud.

There was some sort of a commotion on the field after the game. A bystander volunteered the information that Elberfeld had hit somebody. This is the second time the Kid has been credited with punching a spectator after the game. Punching is better reserved for the ball. The New Yorks need that sort more. The score:
